Sir,

*Sub: Application of P.Lakshmidevamma, widow of P.Subba Rao, late Amin, District Court, Bellary for compassionate gratuity - Recommended.

ENCLOSURES

SPARE COPIES

I have the honour to forward herewith an application from P.Lakshmidevamma, widow of P.Subba Rao, late Amin of the District Court, Bellary for the grant of compassionate gratuity under G.O.No.120 Finance (Pension) Department dated 22-3-1932.

2. The petitioner's husband P.Subba Rao was entertained in this Department as Amin on 14-7-1920 and had put in a total service of 17 years 8 months and 10 days up to 23-1-1938 when he died. No punishments were inflicted on the deceased during his service. He was drawing a salary of Rs.35/- per mensem. It is stated that he was not able to make any provision for the family. He has no property either moveable or immoveable. He has not insured his life. He was subscribing to the G.P. Fund, and the amount accumulated Rs.181/- was drawn and disbursed to the petitioner. He has left his wife, the petitioner and 5 children - 3 sons aged 9,7 and 1 and 2 daughters aged 12 and 4 years respectively and his old mother aged 70 years. He has left debts to the extent of Rs.1200/-. The family of the deceased is in a bad condition and requires pecuniary help. There appears to be nobody liable to support the family of the deceased.

3 In these circumstances, I consider that the case of the petitioner deserves consideration and I recommend the grant of Rs.200/- as compassionate gratuity. The Service Register and the Record of enquiry by the Revenue Department and the descriptive roll of the petitioner are herewith submitted.

4 Payment may be made at the Bellary Treasury.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

District Judge.

Bellary,
Dated 26th February 1938.

To

The District Judge,

Bellary.

Honoured Sir,

I, widow of late P.Subba Rao, Amin, District Court, Bellary beg to bring the following few lines for your Honour's kind consideration and charitable disposal.

My husband P.Subba Rao was entertained in Judicial Department as an Amin in the year 1920 and had put in a total service of about 20 years. After suffering from protracted illness for a period of six months he died on 23-1-1938 leaving behind him a large family consisting of myself, his old mother aged 70, and two daughters and three sons to bemoan his loss. The eldest of the three sons is aged only 9 years. He has left us neither moveable nor immoveable property. Even during his life-time we were suffering from very many calamities, as he was not able to maintain the large family by the meagre salary of Rs.35/- that he was getting. As such he was forced to contract debts to the extent of Rs.1200/- which he was not able to discharge. Thus he has left us in utter poverty and destitution without any means to eke out our livelihood.

Since four years he was contributing to the General Provident Fund and the amount accumulated is only about Rs.170/-. Prior to his death he was on medical leave for about six months. I had to go in for hand loans to meet the demands of the medical men and the funeral ceremonies which I am hoping to clear from the accumulated amount of Rs.170/- in the General Provident Fund. After that we will be left with nothing to maintain ourselves. He has not even insured his life. Now there is none to look after us. We feel helpless and are left in the lurch though my has served for 20 years under the Government.

Under the abovemei request Your Honour will have the mercy to recommend to the Government for the grant of compassionate gratuity. The amou that may be sanctioned may be ordered to be paid to me at the Bellary Treasury.

I beg to remain,

Honoured Sir,

Yours obediently,
